Dear Paul,

I finally had a chance to speak, if but briefly, with the man I wanted to. He is interested and he thinks the prospects are very good.

However, he also is rather tied up for at least ten weeks.

When I could I have been thinking about this. I have a few unsolicited suggestions for whenever we have a chance to talk, if you would not regard them as an intrusion.

Did you ever learn anything about Jimmy Robinson?

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg
